

Potential Student (You) contacts Course Provider to discuss course delivery, key dates, fees, payment plan options and requirements of undertaking the course etc.

Leanne Mollison Queen St Pilates Studio
0421 357 933

training@queenstpilates.com

Once you have read all course information, decide which course you wish to undertake.

Cert IV Course Information
Student Handbook

Integrated Diploma Course Information

You then enrol using Tensegrity Training Website and pay non-refundable enrolment fee (which is a separate fee to the fees for undertaking the course) together with your Deposit and Learner material fee

Tensegrity Training Enrolment Form

You will then receive your login details to access online learning system for the Anatomy and Physiology, History of Pilates and WHS components of the course - which must be completed within 60 days.

Course Provider (Queen St Pilates Studio) will be in contact with you, to confirm payment plan, date of 1st workshop and to provide assistance with your online learning as required.

Purchase QSPS Cert IV Payment Plan

You can then access the course Learner Materials and Assessments via your student Portal and all remaining Course fees are payable throughout the course as per the payment plan

You must then complete all required assessment tasks and submit them for assessment

You attend workshops as scheduled and undertakes personal practice, clinical practice and observation hours as required

You are assessed as competent and certificate is issued

If you are assessed as not yet competent you must discuss additional evidence requirements with Course Provider and make 1 resubmit. (Additional fees may apply)